

THE EVER-INCREASING NUMBER OF THE TEE-DEE WANT ADS. IS A SURE GUARANTEE THAT THEY PAY THE ADVERTISER

The MAN ABOUT TOWN
By Harry Tucker.

Harry Tost is not the whole show—
But most of it.
For, you know,
There are others in the cast
That make things so fast.
As Alkali Bill
He fills the bill.
Still,
There are others, you know,
In the show.

We could sit all night at the Academy
And listen to the love ditties in "Dolly Varden."
If we were half as good a spellbinder, Both the political parties would have had us out on the stump long ago.

But love-making is our part, and if there are any sweet young things looking for some one to love, they needn't look further, but send us their photograph at once.

Take the majestic Adelaide Leeds, for instance.
As she stands on the end and trips lightly about the stage to the music of the orchestra's entrancing waltzes, we feel real gay and giddy.

And that's why we are on the front bench at the Bijou at each performance
this week.

With the falling of the pretty autumn leaves comes memories of days gone, when we sat in the park and watched them fall, building hopes that have fallen just like the leaves.

We have decided to pass a set of resolutions and present them to Harry Huber and Lee Peters requesting them to get together again and paint some of the leaves so green that they will never turn and fall, so that some of the hopes we built in the park may remain and stay fast and steadfast until time shall have withered us like it withers the leaves.

Or words to that effect.
As a shopper we are a blamed failure.
When we were sent to get the stuff for two horse show gowns, we had to pay all there was in our pockets for them, when the girls with the brown eyes told us afterward that they could have been got for half the price.

We never did like spangles, anyhow,
and always was.
